Check out this charming, move-in-ready, two-story residence at 618 4th Street, a testament to classic craftsmanship situated beside a convenient community park area. From the moment you step inside, the home whispers tales of yesteryear with its exquisite original woodwork, gracing every turn from the grand staircase to the sophisticated pocket doors. The main floor unfolds with a welcoming, spacious foyer, a convenient half bath, and a well-appointed kitchen. An addition at the rear of the home offers both a dedicated laundry room and a versatile office, currently serving as a comfortable fifth bedroom. Ascending the beautiful staircase, you'll discover four inviting bedrooms and a full bath, providing ample private retreats. Keep climbing and you'll reach the attic with plenty of storage and a long-forgotten bathroom that could be brought back to use. The allure of original hardwood floors flows seamlessly throughout the common areas, beautifully complemented by the cozy carpeting in the bedrooms. A delightful all-season room, born from the enclosed front porch, offers a tranquil haven for year-round relaxation. A detached workshop caters to hobbies and projects or just extra storage. The manageable yard ensures your weekends are spent enjoying life, not mowing. This distinguished property truly offers a refined living experience, blending historic elegance with modern comforts, all within a vibrant
